Councillor A. G. M. Robertson was chairman of the Committee on Rules instead of Mark P. Robinson, as inadvertently printed in Monday's report of the Council of State.

A contract for the new sewer pipe was let yesterday to Gladding, McBeon & Company of San Francisco. The Honolulu Iron Works was awarded the contract for the iron castings.

John Cummins and his friends celebrated his 66th birthday anniversary on St. Patrick's Day at the Pawa residence. David, Cupid and Col. Samuel Parker were among the sixty odd guests. The Quintette club sang.

H. A. Vincent, formerly a member of Company E, N. G. H., has been confounded with Homer E. Vincent, who was arrested for larceny. The similarity of names and initials has caused the former considerable annoyance.

For stealing gold fish from a pond on King street near Independence Park Kahula was fined $5 yesterday by District Judge Wilcox who after sentencing him gave him permission to take all the fish he wanted from the Judge's pond.

General sympathy will be felt for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pomroy in the loss of their little boy, Samuel Pomroy, who died yesterday afternoon aged two years and five months. The lad had been a sufferer from throat trouble which took a paralytic form.

The steamship Peking is due to arrive from the Coast with mail on Thursday. She sailed from San Francisco on March 15, and as the latest news received so far was contained in papers of the 9th instant, there will be a big budget by the Peking.

Young Men's Christian Association members are to have the opportunity to become tennis champions. The McGrew property on the corner of Alakea and Beretania streets will probably be leased and laid out in courts. If interest is manifested, an effort will be made to fit up grounds for outside athletic sports.

The Triangle club met last evening at the Y. M. C. A. and the following members were elected to serve as officers for the ensuing six months: President, John Templeton; vice-president, W. H. Soper; Secretary, J. E. Davis; treasurer, John Lennox; marshal, C. Young; deputy marshal, W. McChesney; critic, H. E. Coleman.

Hogan took his nine out to the baseball grounds yesterday afternoon to lumber them up around the diamond. Hogan himself furnishes one battery and the gentleman who twirls the baton so deftly in the parade seems equally apt at "curving the sphere." The boys show smartness in field work and by early appearances will show the "Stars" they know how to play ball.

If the transport Siam left San Francisco on the 7th of this month and has met with heavy weather her trip to this port would occupy at least thirteen days. Her highest speed is nine knots and the slightest stress of weather reduces even this low speed to eight knots and oftentimes six. From Manila to Honolulu the average daily rate per hour of the Siam was about seven knots.

Officer Peahl had quite a tussle with two sailors yesterday who attempted to enter the quarantined premises of Russian Frank on Queen street. The officer was pretty roughly handled before he got the best of the men. He had to use his club and did so with good effect. The men were charged at the Police Station with assaulting an officer and attempting to break the quarantine regulation. They gave the names of G. Miller and William Jones.

The entertainment arranged for the benefit of the Hawaiian Relief Society, will take place on Tuesday evening, March 27, at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association. Tickets are on sale today at the leading stores, the price being 50 cents. The program is unusually interesting, and the charity a worthy one.

A Good Cough Medicine For Children.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says P. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children, as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

The Advertiser is delivered to any part of the city for 75 cents per month.
